4. Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest situation would be deemed to have arisen, when the personal interest of a Member of the Board and/or of the Senior Management is perceived to be inconsistent with or is in conflict with the business interest of the Company. Following are some of the situations which may deem to reflect potential of conflicts of interest and which has been worded explicitly, but every Member of the Board & Senior Management should endeavour to avoid situations which may cast doubt or impair his ability to impartially decide on any issue that may come before him/her or which may make it difficult for him/her to perform his/ her duties objectively and effectively, in the business interest of the Company.

Some of the situations wherein a conflict of interest may be deemed to have arisen are elucidated hereinafter.

a) Pecuniary benefit/ Remuneration linked or otherwise

Where a Member of the Board and/or Senior Management whilst conducting business for and on behalf of the Company and being in a position to influence any decision, with regard to the Company or its holding, subsidiaries or its associate's business, if any, with a supplier or customer or distributor or any entity in which he/ she and/ or any of his/ her relatives is an officer, member, director or partner, resulting in a benefit of any kind to him/ her or his/ her relatives.

Award of benefits such as increase in salary or other remuneration, posting, promotion or recruitment of a relative of a Member of the Board & Senior Management with the Company, and where such Member of the Board & Senior Management is in a position to influence decisions with regard to such benefits.

b) Outside Affiliation/Business Interest/Directorship in Competing Entities

As a matter of policy, any conflict of interest on account of any association with any business or other entity is prohibited, unless such concerned person seeks prior consent of the Company.

Whole-Time Director, who has a conflict of Interest, shall obtain prior consent of the Board of Directors of the Company. Further, the prior consent of the Chairman of the Company is required, in case, the conflict of Interest is of Member of the Board & Senior Management {excluding the Whole-Time Director(s)}. Further, as the conflict of interest may not be obvious, any question to determine the nature of potential or actual conflict of interest that has arisen, should be disclosed to the Chairman, as the case may be.

It is expected that Members of the Board & Senior Management acting as a nominee of the Company or any of its holding, subsidiaries or associates, if any, on the Board of any entity or in any other capacity, pursue all their dealings with the said entities or any of its holding or subsidiaries or associates, on an arm's length basis and shall abstain from taking undue advantage of their positions. Dealings, if any, entered into with the said entities shall be disclosed to the Chairman and/or Wholetime Director of the Company.
